-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --
Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on July 26th, 2005 has been entered.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 10-17 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 10-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Ginter et al (U.S PG Pub No. 2005/017716.)

5. As per claims 10 and 14, Ginter et al an information processing apparatus, comprising first storage means for storing reference information including user information and characteristic information of the information processing apparatus reception means for receiving first information encrypted with a first key and second information containing one or more usage conditions of the first information and one or more usage details for the usage conditions (see paragraphs 0239), usage detail selection means for selecting usage details of the second information received by the reception means based on the usage conditions of the second information and the reference information stored in the first storage means (see paragraphs 0117), second storage means for storing usage history of using the first information according to the usage details selected by the usage detail selection means (see paragraphs 0144), usage control information generation means for generating usage control information for the first information based on the usage details selected by usage detail selection means and the usage history stored by the second storage means (see paragraphs 0210), and control means for controlling the first information according to the usage control information generated by the usage control information generation means (see paragraphs 0406) see also paragraphs 0418, 1195, 1834, 1922, 1927, 1930, 2118, 2276, 2293, 2301)

6. As per claims 11, Ginter et al an information processing apparatus wherein the control means decrypts the first information encrypted with the first key with a second key which is distributed from a key distribution center and having an expiration date after which the second key cannot be used (see paragraphs 0285).

7. As per claims 12 and 16, Ginter et al an information processing apparatus wherein the usage detail selected by the usage detail selection means also includes control transfer status information which shows whether or not the first information can be transferred to other apparatuses (see paragraphs 0406).

8. As per claims 13 and 17, Ginter et al an information processing apparatus wherein the usage history stored by the second storage means also includes usage type information of when the first information is used (see paragraphs 0406).

9. As per claims 15, Ginter et al an information processing apparatus wherein the first key for encrypting the first information is encrypted with a second key which is distributed from a key distribution center and having an expiration date after which the second key cannot be used (see paragraphs 0406).

Conclusion

10. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. (see form 892).
